

DENY FONTAINE masterkey schedule

Control of accesses via the masterkey schedule

- The wide-ranging portfolio of cylinders on the market
- The strongest capacity for combinations on the market
- A commercial team at your sides to understand your needs
- A range of offers adapted to each need

Product description

- DENY FONTAINE masterkey schedule is an easy way, which allows permitting every colleague to enter in the authorized premises and only these ones.
- It allows organizing keys opening several doors of one or several buildings (hospitals, plants, blocks of flats....).
- Exclusive masterkey schedule property to one customer.
- Personalized and modulate, it is associated to management of accreditations.

Advantages of the product

- Exclusive and personalized product per customer.
- Security in the calculation of masterkey schedule.
- Security in the masterkey management. Secured accreditations.
- Modulation of the masterkey schedule depending on its growth or needs.
- Masterkey schedule can integrate different accesses (interior doors, gates, padlocks, electrical lockcases...).
- Innovative products and services. Management and consulting of the masterkey schedule on a dedicated and secured website.
- An internal department entirely dedicated to the masterkey schedule of customers.
- A strong experience in large organization and high-risk firms.

PRODUCTS CHARACTERISTICS

DENY FONTAINE MASTERKEY SCHEDULE

The round shape Deny cylinder adapted to specific and high risk sites.

- A strong capacity combination to ensure security in high risk sites.

The European cylinder DYNAXIS with pump technology with unequalled capacity of combination.

- A robust solution for complexity issues.

The patented European cylinder SATYX, flat and reversible key.

- A patented high security cylinder for a complex and safety access control.

D.F European cylinder with protected key.

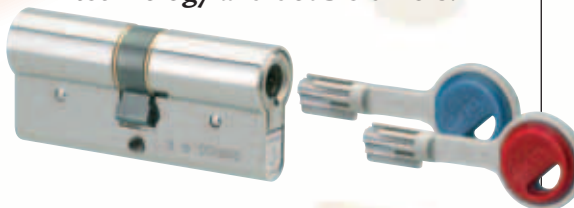

- Lifetime trademark protected key profile for complex access systems.

The European cylinder Y200, flat key, exclusive profile, integrated an electronic chip.

- An innovative product and services answering to simple access control.

The European cylinder FENYX, pump technology and double differs.

- A European cylinder to answer rapidly to stolen or lost keys without changing the cylinder.